

JOSEPH R. SICARI

Acting Coach and Consultant for career coaching in Film, Television, Voice-Over Techniques and Workshops in 'Working in the Industry'.

ACTING COACHING;

Character Analysis:

Individual and semi-private coaching sessions with actors.

--experience at Arts Educational Theatre Company of Cleveland

--two hour sessions for clarification of actor objectives, character analysis and vocal technique for beginning actors using psychological analytical approach.

Cleveland Playhouse -- two hour classes in introduction to acting also all of the above with Ohio State University students completing their MFA doing practical internships at the Playhouse.

CAREER COACHING:

Casting Techniques:

-- What to do to get the part

--How to know your type, how to present the type the casting director wants.

Career Overview:

--identifying various methods of approaching the industry/"getting in the door one way or another"

--identify your strengths as an agent for yourself

--recognize the obstacles as part of the business, and as something that can be overcome and gain the actor entrance into the audition.

-- Share the wisdom -- 35 years of working against the odds. A successful career performer shares some tricks of the trade with aspiring actors.